Mr Rahul Walvekar for appellants

CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J.

DATED 27.2.2006

P.C.

. Heard counsel for the appellant. During the course of argument the learned counsel has essentially pressed ground (viii) and (ix) as substantial questions of law which should have been considered in the present appeal. In my opinion both the courts below have considered the said contentions and relying on reported decision answered the issues against the appellants. Accordingly no substantial question will arise for consideration in this appeal. Appeal is dismissed.
